

Eugene Halliday Society

A charity founded by the artist and writer Eugene Halliday
we hold regular meetings in Cheshire and Wirral

Informed by the legacy of Eugene Halliday, we work together to explore the essential ideas within art, religion, philosophy and science, for a better appreciation, understanding and enjoyment of life.

“Eugene Halliday Society” and “Ishval” are working names for the “Eugene Halliday Institute for the Study of Hierological Values”
Registered Charity Number 251136
Founded 1966

“Hierological values” are the values contained within the ancient texts of all religions, such as the Bible, the Torah, Kabbala, the Koran, the Bhagavad Gita, the Dao de Jing, and later works including Jacob Boehme and William Blake, to name but a few.
“Hierology” means literature or learning regarding sacred things; from Greek hieros,
sacred.
